My dear Bill:

Just a hurried note (with a frightful pen!) to thank you and the Chief for your telegram of good wishes. God knows I will need them, and your help and understanding too! The best reason for my taking the job is that I am expendable.

It came about very suddenly, and there was no chance to talk with you in advance. I hope you received my message & that effect, sent from an air force plane over Baltimore.

And the best of luck to you, too — with my respectful regards to W. B. S.

Yours ever,
